

The "Astroid," originally built in 1921 as the "Wita," in Scherpeningen, Netherlands. Rigged as a ketch in 1934, she was sold in 1937 to a Swede who renamed her "Astroid," a coastal ship, she transported grain and wood.

from SAILING SHIPS by OLLIVIER PUGET

1